Your Top Shelf Growth Plan · Dog daycare, boarding & grooming

The companion to your audit — the real problems we found, what they're quietly costing you, and exactly how Top Shelf fixes each one.

You've done the hardest thing in local business already: earned a 4.9 rating across 495 reviews, with your grooming praised by name more than 55 times. That kind of reputation is rare. The problem is simple and completely fixable — almost none of it reaches the people searching for you right now. Here's what your audit found, what it's quietly costing you, and exactly how we'd fix each one.

01 What your audit turned up

Three real gaps from your audit — each one grounded in what we actually saw on your site and profile.

1 There's no phone number on your website

COSTING YOU A pet parent ready to book daycare or a groom lands on your site, has a question, and finds no way to reach you — no number, no tap-to-call button. Most of them don't hunt for it. They call the next kennel that makes it easy.

OUR FIX We put a tap-to-call button and your number at the top of every page, and add self-serve online booking so they can reserve boarding, daycare, or grooming in the moment.

THE RESULT Every ready-to-book customer reaches you in one tap — and the ones who'd rather book themselves, can, day or night.

2 Your 495 reviews are nowhere on the site

COSTING YOU A first-time customer nervous about leaving their dog with someone new never sees the 495 reasons to trust you. Your single best asset is doing zero work on the page where the decision actually happens.

OUR FIX We build a live reviews wall — with the grooming raves featured — so your reputation greets every visitor instead of living only on Google.

THE RESULT Your hardest-won asset finally sells for you: new customers arrive already convinced.

3 The whole site is a single-page brochure

COSTING YOU There are no real pages for boarding, daycare, or grooming, no pricing, no booking, and nothing for either location — so Google has almost nothing to rank, and visitors who want the basics leave to find them elsewhere.

OUR FIX We build a proper site: dedicated service pages, a page for each location (Flower Mound and Lewisville), pricing, and booking — plus the local SEO and schema so you show up for “dog boarding Flower Mound.”

THE RESULT You get found for the searches you’re invisible for today, and your reputation finally has somewhere to convert.

Does this sound familiar?

Those are the things we could spot from the outside. But you’re the one running two locations, grooming, daycare, and boarding every single day — so a few of these probably hit closer to home.

O2 Other things we hear from owners like you

Common headaches for a busy pet-care business — and what it looks like once they’re off your plate.

The phone rings while you’re mid-groom or hands-full with dogs

THE DRAG Calls go to voicemail during your busiest hours, and a booking you’d have won just books somewhere else instead.

OUR FIX Online booking so people can reserve without calling, plus an automatic text back the instant a call is missed.

THE RESULT Bookings come in while you work, and no caller is ever left hanging.

No-shows and last-minute cancellations leave runs empty

THE DRAG A boarding slot or grooming appointment that falls through at the last minute is revenue you can’t get back that day.

OUR FIX Automatic confirmations and reminders by text and email before every stay and appointment.

THE RESULT Fewer no-shows, a fuller calendar, and far less time spent on reminder calls.

Holidays fill up, but your regulars aren't the first to know

THE DRAG Peak boarding weeks are your biggest revenue, yet they fill on a first-come basis instead of going to the loyal clients who'd happily book early.

OUR FIX Simple email and text campaigns to your own client list for peak dates, plus packages and memberships.

THE RESULT Your busy seasons sell out to your regulars first — predictable revenue you can plan around.

This is just the tip of the iceberg.

What you've seen here is only your website and Google presence — one slice of your business. The bigger wins are in the parts we can't see from the outside. Let's grab 20 minutes and sit down together to map the rest of the day-to-day headaches Top Shelf can take off your plate — your audit is yours to keep, and you own everything we build.

Let's set up your sit-down.
